

ENTOMOLOGY:

- Entomology is a branch of zoology, which deals with the study of insects.
- Entomon = Insects, Logos = study.

AGRICULTURAL ENTOMOLOGY:

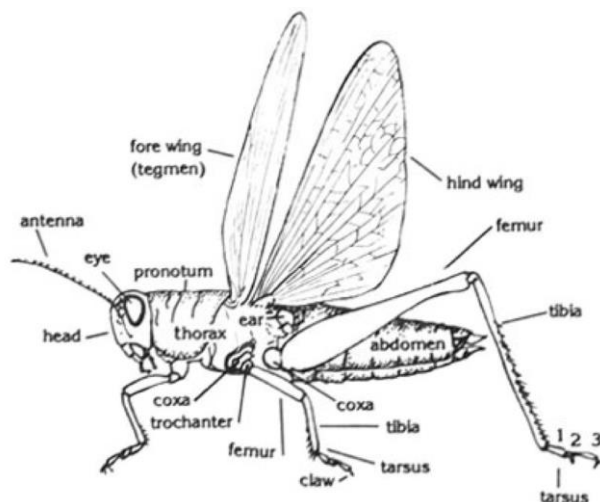

- This mainly concerns with the study of insects, which are directly related with the crops and the stored commodities.

❖ Arthropoda

- Arthros = means jointed, Poda = legs/ appendages.
- They are characterized as having a body divided by grooves to form segments and a well-developed covering, the Integument, which makes up the outer shell or Exoskeleton.

❖ INSECT:

- Insect is an arthropod having body segmented into three regions- head, body and thorax and have 3 pairs of legs and 2 pairs of wings or Insects are invertebrates having body segmented into three regions. They have bilateral symmetry and grow by moulting.

- Insects may live in water, on land or in soil, during part of or all of their lives.
- Their lifestyle may be solitary, gregarious or highly social.

❖ PEST:

- Pests are the organism belonging to class insecta causing economic loss in plants.